OPS Level 3 Briefing Note

Incident Number	22-17557
Update	10
Division
Sector
Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

There are no protestors on Parliament Hill and there are people starting to trickle into the downtown core.

Individual vehicles are getting more assertive in their actions and we have early morning reports that some have driven on sidewalks around city heavy to access the inner core. There are constant assessments on strategic deployments to find the best use of available resources. Members are struggling to maintain some emergency lanes in the downtown core.

There was one report that one of the city heavy trucks used to block a street had its window of damaged overnight.

There have been increased demands upon officers in the core, including with our partner agencies. EMS has their forward Paramedic bus in the inner core to triage and assess minor ailments, preventing requirement for transport. There have been incidents of harassment and intimidation which require the presence of OPS members to be stationed with the paramedics.

PLT will be assigned to discuss potential exit strategies with the various Convoy leaders and how police can facilitate.
